WORKSHOP DESCRIPTIONS

How to Get Funded for Training - The event will give an overview of how to access funding for training, discuss the requirements to access the funds, and go over what is needed to begin the process.

Soft Skill Development - There are many types of skills. The workshop focuses on the three main types of skills to consider when transferring your skills to another occupation or industry: Personal Skills, Jobs Specific Skills and Transferrable Skills.

Researching the Job and Tailoring a Resume - What are tailored resumes, and why should job seekers use them? Learn why and how you should tailor and target your resume for the position you really want!

Mastering the 1st Impression - Whether you're attending an interview, picking up an application, or dropping off a resume, how you present yourself matters. This workshop offers practical guidance on dressing for success and making a strong first impression. Learn what's appropriate for different settings - for example, what works for a construction site interview may not be suitable for a receptionist position.

Interviewing Etiquette - The focus of this workshop is on developing personal conduct and interviewing best practices. Talking points such as proper posture, respectable handshakes, attentiveness/active listening are covered. Also, a brief overview of the STAR method will be presented including techniques on how to effectively respond to behavioral-based interview questions.

Targeting Your Resume - What are targeted resumes, and why should job seekers use them? Learn why and how you should tailor and target your resume for the position you really want!
